

Do not act on anything that would open households up to any more phone solicitation, even from companies with whom I have a relationship.